Best way to contact if follow up is needed?

The communication exchange will assist reporters and the SSC with maintaining current contact information. This information is critical to completing future Follow-Up studies and data analysis.

After answering the survey questions, click on the Submit button to submit the responses and you will be taken to the completion page.

If a question or questions are not responded to correctly then you will get a message indicating the same.

If you have responded to all the questions and the survey is saved then you will see the "Survey Saved" message.
